

International-level
COMPANY: TOTAL
Mark indicators below with a ✓	Yes	No
1. Has the company published a clear public statement endorsing the EITI Principles and Criteria, and ensured this is accessible on its external website? Clear endorsement of EITI is provided on our website www.total.com/csr under "Business Principles /Transparency" and is repeated in our Public positions section (Commitments/public positions) and by our CEO in an interview http://www.total.com/en/corporate-social-responsibility/Challenges-and-Commitments/Interview-margerie/	✓
2. If applicable (i.e. for operations in EITI implementing countries that have completed at least one validation), has the company provided links on its external website to completed Company Forms? No country has been formally validated against the EITI indicators to date.	N/A
3. Has the company assigned strategic responsibility for EITI to a member of its senior management and appointed a lead contact person responsible for communication of the company's EITI policy, action in support of EITI, and responding to queries from EITI stakeholders? Jean-François Lassalle, Vice President Public Affairs, E&amp;P is responsible for Total's EITI commitment. He is the contact person for any question or demand regarding EITI and revenue transparency (jean-francois.lassalle@total.com)	✓
4. If the International EITI Conference has taken place in the validation period, did a member of senior management attend or send a statement of support? Two senior managers, Hubert Loiseleur des Longchamps (Vice	✓

President, International Relations) and Jean-François Lassalle (Vice President Public Affairs, E&amp;P) attended the last plenary EITI conference in September 2006. During that conference, Jean-François Lassalle was one of the speakers for the Private Sector Working Group. 5. Where a company has a global sustainability report or corporate responsibility report, has the company included a summary of its contribution to EITI in this and on its external website? Details of our actions are available on : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- page 66 of our 2006 CSR report (and are included every year in this report. All reports can be downloaded at www.total.com/csr , Publications section)</li> <li>- our website site www.total.com/csr at Business Principles / Transparency</li> </ul>	v
	Yes	No
Overall Assessment (of above)
Narrative opinions.
If any indicators above are marked 'no', please provide an explanation.
Any other comments.		