Exantece Industries Transparency Initiative
Heads of International Secretariat

Yours sincerely,

I hope we will have the opportunity to count with your excellent participation in Lima.

attending the event, including Heads of State.

2013 was a success with 1,300 government, industry and civil society leaders from across 60 different countries.

We foresee considerable public interest in the Conference. The previous ETII Global Conference held in Sydney in part in this discussion.

discussion on improved governance of the oil, gas and mining sectors. I hope that you will join us in Lima to take better ensure that natural resources bring more benefits to all citizens. It is an important global forum for

The ETII Global Conference held every three years will focus on results from the ETII and on how the ETII can understanding countries worldwide. Your government has announced its commitment to implementing the ETII and I understand

ETII, the global standard for the governance of oil, gas and mineral resources, is now implemented by 46

Your Excellency,

INVITATION TO THE 7TH ETII GLOBAL CONFERENCE

Republic of Ghana
Minister of Natural Resources

HE Raphael Tuornaman

5 February 2016
streamlining the application process.

West Indies. All seminars are aimed at raising awareness amongst stakeholders and seminars will be conducted in conjunction with the TTITT and the University of the seminars have been convened so that a thing is scheduled for March 4, 2016. The March seminars approved for Guyana’s membership application to be expedited and to date; and to date, two Guyana, with an economy heavily based on extractive industries, and soon to become an based secretariat and the Trinidad & Tobago Chapter (TTITT).

Guyana has been receiving guidance and support from the TTITT, Norway industries, Guyana has been receiving guidance and support from the TTITT, Norway in its quest to embrace good governance standards in the regulation of the extractive work, making preparations for establishing a fully functional secretariat to advance the work industry and civil society. Guyana is at present finalising the composition of its MSG and Mexico and Chile, secretariat. Guyana is at present finalising the composition of its MSG and Multi-Stakeholder Group (MSG). The countries representatives of government, more inclusive membership, coordinating their activities through a participatory Commission on Accessing membership, coordinating their activities through a participatory and the core
The TTITT promotes the belief that natural resources belong to the people and are to be TTITT promotes the belief that natural resources belong to the people and are to be

The TTITT is a global association of multi-member countries, which have subscribed towards sustainable and sustaining membership in the body, for Guyana’s journey towards achieving enduring and sustaining membership in the body, and importantly, provided ideas of support in Peru, the Guyana delegation participated in plenary and break-out sessions and had Pen from February 24-25, 2016.

The civil society body, Policy Forum, attended the 7th World Summit of EITI in Lima, resources, on behalf of the Ministry of Natural Resources, Hon. Raphael Trotman, and Mr. Mike Mecrohan and Ms. Joy Reisland, of Transparency Initiative (EITI) when a small delegation comprising the Ministry of Natural Guyana became a member of the international body – Extractive Industries

ATTENDING 7TH WORLD SUMMIT PRESS RELEASE: GUYANA MOVES CLOSER TO EITI MEMBERSHIP

Ministry of Natural Resources