

TRANSPARENCY IN TRANSITION

2023 EITI Global Conference Programme

Centre International de Conférences Abdou Diouf (CICAD)
Dakar, Senegal | 13-14 June

Practical information

CONFERENCE WEBSITE

To access the latest programme, speaker and delegate information, as well as information on shuttle buses and other logistical details, visit the conference website eiti.org/eiti2023.

Scan to access the conference website

VENUE AND TRANSPORT

The conference venue is the Centre International de Conférences Abdou Diouf (CICAD). It can take 60 minutes or more to travel from Central Dakar to the CICAD.

Please consult the shuttle bus timetable on our website (also available from the EITI information desk), and adhere strictly to the times provided to ensure your full participation in the conference programme.

REGISTRATION AND BADGE COLLECTION

Registration and badge collection will be available from 07:00 from Monday 12 June to Thursday 15 June. There will be no admission to the conference centre without a badge. Lost badges can be replaced on production of photo ID.

INTERPRETATION

All plenary sessions will be interpreted in French, English, Spanish and Russian. Plenary sessions on Tuesday 13 June will also be interpreted in Portuguese.

All parallel sessions will be interpreted in French and English, with additional interpretation for selected sessions, as identified in this programme.

NATIONAL INNOVATION EXCHANGE

The National Innovation Exchange will take place from 09:30 – 18:00 on 13 and 14 June. It is an opportunity to learn and exchange knowledge about EITI implementation.

The EITI Innovation Talks are scheduled as shown in the programme. These are short presentations by diverse stakeholders, designed to showcase innovative approaches to EITI implementation and exchange new tools across the EITI community.

PEER LEARNING DAY

A peer learning day will be held on Thursday 15 June from 10:00 – 16:30. It is designed for members of multi-stakeholder groups (MSGs), national secretariats, civil society representatives, government officials and company representatives to share experiences, challenges and ideas on topics related to EITI implementation.

The programme for the peer learning day is available at eiti.org/eiti2023/programme, and will be circulated separately to delegates attending the event.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wifi is available free of charge.

Wifi name: EITI Global Conference

Wifi password: EITI2023

MEALS

Tea, coffee and snacks will be available at various points in the programme in the main hall of the conference centre.

Lunch will be served at the times indicated in the programme at the Savana Restaurant and in the catering tent alongside the restaurant. VIP lunches will be served in the Baobab Restaurant.

RECEPTION

All delegates are invited to attend the conference reception from 18:00 – 19:30 on Tuesday 13 June at the conference centre. Transport by shuttle to various points in Central Dakar, the Corniche and Almadies will be provided after the event, as indicated in the shuttle bus timetable.

GUIDE TO THE VENUE

Ushers and staff may be consulted to help delegates navigate the venue and respond to questions.

The following rooms will be used during the course of the event:

Ground Floor

- Main auditorium (overflow seating for the Opening Ceremony is provided in the Oval Room, on the first floor)
- VIP area and VIP meeting rooms
- CICAD Entrance Hall (used for National Innovation Exchange and EITI Innovation Talks)

First Floor

- Oval Room
- Rooms 201 – 205
- Baobab Restaurant

Outside area

(Ground Floor)

- Media Centre
- Savana Restaurant and catering tent

Please consult the programme and conference website for the location of each session.

The EITI is committed to an inclusive approach and to reflecting gender, regional and language diversity in the conference programme.

We are grateful to all spFeakers and to the many partners and stakeholders who have contributed to the programme by hosting partner events, national exhibitions and innovation talks.

SHARE YOUR FEEDBACK

We invite your feedback on the event and suggestions for improvement.

Scan here to give your feedback

Monday 12 June

Pre-conference day and Board meeting

KEY

-  Plenary session
-  Parallel session
-  Partner event
-  National Innovation Exchange

07:00 Registration opens

09:00 – 12:00 Committee and constituency meetings

BY INVITATION

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch at the Savana Restaurant

13:00 – 15:30 56th EITI Board meeting

BY INVITATION

Oval Room

 EN, FR, ES, RU

13:00 – 14:15 Leveraging Africa's transition minerals for optimal domestic revenue mobilisation

Room 205

 EN, FR

African Center for Energy Policy (ACEP), African Forum and Network on Debt and Development (AFRODAD), Tax Justice Network Africa (TJNA)

This session uses a multisectoral approach to explore strategies for optimal tax revenue collection from Africa's mining sector amid the increased demand for transition minerals.

13:00 – 15:30	SOE Leaders' Summit BY INVITATION	Room 201/202 EN, FR, PT
	The fourth EITI SOE Leaders' Summit will bring together representatives from state-owned enterprises in EITI and non-EITI implementing countries to discuss issues affecting state participation in the extractive sector.
15:30	Registration for Members' Meeting opens	CICAD entrance hall
16:00 – 17:30	Members' Meeting BY INVITATION	Oval Room EN, FR, ES, RU

Tuesday 13 June

Day 1: Changing context, celebrating achievements

07:00	Registration opens
08:00 – 09:30	Early bird networking at the Savana Restaurant
09:30	Dignitaries arrive, National Innovation Exchange opens
10:00 – 10:30	Opening and welcome to Dakar This session will open the ninth EITI Global Conference.	Main auditorium  EN, FR, ES, RU, PT
10:30 – 12:00	20 years of the EITI In celebration of the EITI's 20th anniversary, this session will feature commentary and eyewitness accounts from stakeholders involved in the EITI since its foundation. It will explore the impact and relevance of the EITI, and see the launch of the 2023 EITI Standard. Hon. Diamantino Azevedo, Minister of Mineral Resources, Petroleum and Gas, Angola Rt Hon. Sir Tony Blair, former Prime Minister, United Kingdom (video message) Rt Hon. Helen Clark, EITI Board Chair Rohitesh Dhawan, President and Chief Executive Officer, ICMM Peter Eigen, Founder, Transparency International, founding EITI Board Chair Suneeta Kaimal, President and Chief Executive Officer, Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI) Themba Mkhwanazi, Chief Executive Officer, Bulk Commodities, Anglo American plc Wael Sawan, Chief Executive Officer, Shell plc (video message) Moderated by: Mark Robinson, Executive Director, EITI	Main auditorium  EN, FR, ES, RU, PT

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch and networking

13:00 – 14:00

Transparency in transition

Main auditorium

This session sets out the changing context

 EN, FR, ES, RU, PT

for extractives transparency, reflecting on shifts in the natural resources sector and the energy transition, and wider implications for the EITI.

Rhoda Weeks-Brown, General Counsel and Director of the Legal Department, IMF

Abdoulaye Mar Dieye, United Nations Special Coordinator for development in the Sahel

Lord Callanan, Minister for Energy Efficiency and Green Finance, Department for Energy Security and Net Zero, UK, and UKEITI Champion

Alex Cobham, Economist and Chief Executive, Tax Justice Network

Moderated by:

Bady Baldé, Deputy Executive Director, EITI

13:00 – 17:00

Innovation Talks

13.00 – 14.00 French

14.30 – 15.30 English

16.00 – 17.00 English

TUESDAY 13 JUNE

Day 1: Changing context, celebrating achievements

14:15 – 15:30

Navigating net-zero: The role of the EITI in the energy transitionOval Room
EN, FR, ES

This session explores the role that transparency and multi-stakeholder dialogue can play in helping resource-rich countries navigate the opportunities and challenges of the energy transition.

Hon. Abdessalam Ould Mohamed Saleh, Minister of Petroleum, Mines and Energy, Mauritania

Rodrigo Lauria, Head of Climate Change, Vale

Vanessa Cueto, Vice President, Derecho, Ambiente y Recursos Naturales (DAR), Peru

Richard Folland, Head of Policy and Engagement, Carbon Tracker

Moderated by:

Hon. Francesc Piagie Alghali, Minister of State, Office of the Vice-President, Sierra Leone

14:15 – 15:30

From transparency to accountability: The data-driven fight against corruption

Meeting rooms 201/202

EN, FR, ES

This session explores how data can be used to curb corruption and complement anti-corruption efforts in the extractive sector using a multi-stakeholder approach.

Hon. Thomas Opa, Vice Minister of Petroleum and Energy, Papua New Guinea

Souad Aden-Osman, Executive Director, Coalition for Dialogue on Africa (CoDA)

Mukhlis Ishak, Vice President Tax, PT Freeport, Indonesia

Matthieu Salomon, Acting Governance Programs Director, Natural Resource Governance Institute

Karim Lourimi, Chartered Public Accountant and Partner, Enerteam

Agustina de Luca, Community Engagement Manager, Open Ownership

Moderated by:

Gay Ordenes, Asia Director and anti-corruption lead, EITI

14:15 – 15:30

Geopolitics and good governance:
The importance of tracking resource spend

Media Centre

 EN, FR

DiXi Group Ukraine, International Renaissance Foundation (Ukraine)

This session considers how geopolitical challenges – including climate change, increasing demand for critical raw materials and the war in Ukraine – require new solutions for sustaining and strengthening accountability in the extractive industries, and how the EITI Standard could evolve to track how resource revenues are spent.

14:15 – 15:30

Flying below the radar? Reflections on the integration of artisanal and small-scale mining into EITI reporting

Meeting room 205

 EN, FR

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

The session explores how EITI implementing countries, multi-stakeholder groups and private sector actors can use new data collection techniques to better capture artisanal and small-scale mining production in EITI reporting, to promote responsible mineral supply chains.

14:30 – 15:45

Down to earth: Empowering local EITI stakeholders

Main auditorium

 EN, FR, ES, RU, PT

This session showcases how the EITI platform and data disclosures can enable local stakeholders to engage and secure accountability in the use of revenues from the extractive industries.

Nana Akua Dehye II, Queen Mother of Sanzule, Ghana

Patricia Delia Pinto Arenas, Civil society representative, EITI subnational body, Arequipa, Peru

Ridwan Botji, Head of the Department of Energy and Mineral Resources, Southeast Sulawesi province, Indonesia

Nicolas Kobiane, Secretary General to the Minister of Economy, Finance and Development, Burkina Faso

Grace Barrasso, Vice President, Environment and Sustainable Development, ArcelorMittal

Anthony Bebbington, International Program Director, Natural Resources and Climate Change, Ford Foundation

Moderated by:

Mario Picon, Director, Leveraging Transparency to Reduce Corruption (LTRC), Brookings Institution and Results for Development

TUESDAY 13 JUNE

Day 1: Changing context, celebrating achievements

15:30 – 16:45

Who benefits? Extractives paving the way on beneficial ownership transparency*Meeting rooms 201/202*

🗣️ EN, FR, ES

This session takes stock of progress in the implementation of beneficial ownership reforms in the extractive sector and explores opportunities for these reforms to spearhead progress in other sectors and regions.

Hon. Ismaïla Madior Fall, Garde des Sceaux, Minister of Justice, Senegal

Domtie Sarpong, Senior State Attorney, Office of the Registrar of Companies (ORC), Ghana

Robin Hodess, Strategy Lead, The B Team

Kristine Aghalaryan, Journalist, Investigative Journalists of Armenia (HETQ)

Mustapha Mani Yusuf, Director, Monitoring and Coordination, Nigeria Mining Cadastre Office

Jennifer Lewis, Deputy, Programs, Anti-Corruption Task Force (ACTF), USAID

Moderated by:

Louise Russell-Prywata, Acting Executive Director, Open Ownership

15:45 – 17:00

Race to the top: How EITI company disclosures contribute to ESG performance*Meeting room 205*

🗣️ EN, FR

This session focuses on the EITI assessment of company progress in meeting the Expectations for EITI supporting companies and considers how EITI company disclosures contribute to enhanced ESG performance.

James Ensor, Chief Executive Officer, BHP Foundation

Oleksiy Orlovsky, Democracy and Good Governance Program Director, International Renaissance Foundation, Ukraine

Olivia Reynolds, Vice President of Sustainability and ESG, Kosmos Energy

Adrian Mill, Managing Director, Environmental and Social Sustainability (ESS)

Moderated by:

Maria Lya Ramos, Associate Director, Global Extractive Industries Program, Oxfam

15:45 – 17:00

Data and dialogue for the delivery of sustainable mineral supply chains

Oval Room
EN, FR, ES, RU

This session explores how EITI data can be used for multi-stakeholder dialogue to promote sustainable mineral supply chains, from the formalisation of artisanal and small-scale mining (ASM) to oversight of revenues and ownership of larger mining operations.

Hon. Johana Rocha, Vice Minister of Mines, Colombia

Fatimata Yaou Korgom, Deputy Secretary General, Ministry of Mines, Niger

Benjamin Katz, Manager, Minerals Sector Programme, OECD Centre for Responsible Business Conduct

Telye Yurisch Toledo, Economist and Researcher, Terram Foundation, Chile

Isabelle Ramdoo, Deputy Director, Intergovernmental Forum on Mining, Minerals, Metals and Sustainable Development (IGF)

Aryanto Nugroho, National Coordinator, Publish What You Pay, Indonesia

Edward Bickham, Senior Adviser, World Gold Council

16:00 – 17:30

Implementing the environmental and social requirements of the new EITI Standard

Main auditorium
EN, FR, ES

Derecho, Ambiente y Recursos Naturales, DAR (Peru), La Mesa de Sociedad Civil para la Transparencia en las Industrias Extractivas, Observatorio Dominicano de Políticas Públicas UASD, Publish What you Pay (PWYP), Transparencia por Colombia (TpC)

This session fosters dialogue between civil society, government and industry stakeholders to discuss strategies for implementing the social and environmental provisions of the 2023 EITI Standard at the national level.

16:45 – 18:00

From strengthened requirements to frontier topics: How can the EITI support anti-corruption?

Meeting rooms 201/202
(breakout groups in 203 and 204)
EN, FR

NRGI, Mining Shared Value

This session explores how disclosures under the 2023 EITI Standard and other measures can help mitigate corruption in high-risk areas, especially in the procurement of goods and services by extractive companies.

TUESDAY 13 JUNE

Day 1: Changing context, celebrating achievements

16:45 – 18:00

Energy transition, emissions and extractives producers: Data gaps and governance risks

Media Centre

EN, FR

Carbon Tracker, NRGi, New Producers Group and RMI

This session reviews the rapidly evolving industry standards and tools for publishing data on GHG emissions. It explores how data gaps may limit the relevance of GHG emissions data in producer countries, and how EITI stakeholders can use this data to scrutinise key governance risks.

17:00 – 18:00

Future-proofing extractive projects for a just, inclusive, and equitable net-zero world

Oval Room

EN, FR

Commonwealth Secretariat, Ford Foundation, Oxfam, Université de Pau et des Pays de l'Adour (UPPA)

This session examines the risks and opportunities that the energy transition presents, and discusses the necessary steps that must be taken today to ensure that extractive projects play a role in achieving a just, inclusive and equitable path to a net-zero world.

18:00 – 19:30

Conference reception at the Savana Restaurant

Plenary session

Parallel session

Partner event

National Innovation Exchange

Wednesday 14 June

Day 2: Future priorities, new frontiers

07:00	Registration opens
08:00 – 10:00	Early bird networking at the Savana Restaurant
10:00 – 17:00	National Innovation Exchange
13:00 – 17:00	Innovation Talks 10.00 – 11.00 English 11.30 – 12.30 Spanish 15.30 – 16.30 French
10:00 – 11:15	Future priorities for resource governance This session explores opportunities for the EITI in the coming decade, rooted in its core mission of promoting transparency and accountability in the energy and extractives sector. Demetrios Papathanasiou , Global Director, Energy and Extractives Global Practice, World Bank Paul Maassen , Chief, Country Support, Open Government Partnership Lawrence Dechambenoit , Global Head of External Affairs, Rio Tinto Dr. Fred Ampiah , Deputy Director, Sub-Regional Office for West and Central Africa, UNDP Gabriela Egaña , Head of Citizen Participation, Ministry of Mines, Chile Daniel Kaufmann , Senior Fellow at Results for Development and at the Brookings Institution, President Emeritus, NRGi	Main auditorium 🗣️ EN, FR, ES, RU
	Moderated by:	Joanne Jones , Communications Director, EITI
11:15 – 11:30	Networking break

11:30 – 13:00

Ten years of EITI implementation in Senegal: Pathways to a new era of resource governance

Main auditorium

EN, FR

EITI Senegal

This session shares information on advances made in EITI implementation in Senegal, takes stock of challenges and gathers stakeholder perspectives on how progress in meeting EITI Requirements could be improved.

11:45 – 13:00

Recharging transparency: Lessons learned on contract disclosure

Meeting rooms 201/202

(combined)

EN, FR, ES, RU

This session takes stock of lessons from governments and companies on the benefits of disclosing contracts of energy and extractives projects as the energy transition gathers pace.

Mike Anderson, Senior Vice President, Sustainability and External Affairs, Kosmos Energy

Hon. Miguel Díaz, Vice Minister of Mines, Ministry of Energy and Mines, Dominican Republic

Rushaiya Ibrahim-Tanko, Project Director, PPA Transparency Project Energy for Growth Hub, Ghana

Aubrey Menard, Senior Policy Advisor, Oxfam

Rohitash Dhawan, President and Chief Executive Officer, ICMM

Hon. Hovhannes Harutyunyan, Deputy Minister of Territorial Administration and Infrastructure, Armenia

Moderated by:

Esteban Manteca, Senior Country Manager, Latin America and the Caribbean, EITI

WEDNESDAY 14 JUNE

Day 2: Future priorities, new frontiers

11:45 – 13:00

On equal terms: Energy transition pathways that work for women

Oval Room

EN, FR, ES

This session seeks to understand how governments and companies can create sustainable economies and extractive industries that work for women and communities, and what data is needed to inform and monitor more inclusive policies.

Hon. Mawunyo Miła Aziable, Minister Delegate to the President of the Republic, Energy and Mines, Republic of Togo

Mauricio Alarcón Salvador, Executive Director, Fundación Ciudadanía y Desarrollo, Ecuador

Aida Diop Ndiaye, President, Women in Mining Senegal

Guillaume Kurek, Chief Executive Officer, Eramet Senegal

Moderated by:

Barbara Dischinger, Director and Founder of International Women in Mining

11:45 – 13:00

The rise of renewables: Sharing lessons with the extractive sector

Room 205

EN, FR

This session explores why the renewable energy sector's rapid growth must be underpinned by transparency and good governance, and opportunities for sharing lessons with the extractive sector.

Michael Jarvis, Executive Director, Transparency and Accountability Initiative

Nick Beattie, Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer, Savana Energy plc

Cielo Magno, Undersecretary, Fiscal Policy and Monitoring Group, Department of Finance, Philippines

Michael Clements, Director for International Programmes, Business and Human Rights Resource Centre

Moderated by:

Maja de Vibe, Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer, Statkraft

13:00 – 14:00

Lunch and networking

14:00 – 15:15

Leadership Forum

Main auditorium

 EN, FR, ES, RU

This session presents an opportunity for government, company and civil society leaders to share commitments on strengthening transparency and EITI implementation.

H.E. Samia Suluhu Hassan, President of the United Republic of Tanzania
(video message)

H.E. Ouhoumoudou Mahamadou, Prime Minister, Niger

Nicolas Terraz, President, Exploration & Production, TotalEnergies (video message)

Sebastião Gaspar Martins, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Sonangol E.P.

Hon. Gwede Mantashe, Minister of Mineral Resources and Energy, South Africa

Gabriela Egaña, Representative of the Minister of Mining, Chile

Hon. Louis Paul Motaze, Minister of Finance, Republic of Cameroon

Hon. Jean-Baptiste Ondaye, Minister of Economy and Finance, Republic of the Congo

Hon. Nicole Jeanine Lydie Roboty épouse Mbou, Minister of Economy and Recovery, Gabon

Jorge Reina García, Representative of the Minister of Transparency, Honduras

H.E. Jean-Marc Pisani, Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union in the Republic of Senegal

Hon. Rufin Benam Beltoungou, Minister of Mines and Geology, Central African Republic

Hon. Johana Rocha, Vice Minister of Mines, Colombia

Hon. Iran Sharkhan, Vice Minister of Industry and Infrastructural Development, Kazakhstan

Moderated by:

Mark Robinson, Executive Director, EITI

15:15 – 15:30

Networking break

WEDNESDAY 14 JUNE

Day 2: Future priorities, new frontiers

15:15 – 16:30

Tax transparency in focus: How new tax transparency disclosures can complement EITI reporting and priorities*Media Centre*

🗨️ EN, FR

Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), ICMM, Oxfam

This session explores the emergence of tax transparency and public country-by-country reporting (pCbCR) and its complementarity to EITI disclosures, including payments to governments. It highlights good practices in voluntary company disclosures and how related regulations and tax transparency standards – such as the EITI, GRI's Tax Standard and ICMM's Mining Principles – may evolve.

15:30 – 16:30

Is win-win possible? Transparent and sustainable resource taxation*Oval room*

🗨️ EN, FR, ES, RU

This session explores how data can enable better understanding of extractives revenues and inform fiscal policies that benefit citizens and contribute to a sustainable investment climate.

Hon. Judith Suminwa-Tuluka, Minister of State, Minister of Planning and MSG Chair, Democratic Republic of the Congo

Don Hubert, Founder and President, Resources for Development Consulting

Benjamin Boakye, Executive Director, Africa Centre for Energy Policy

Yannick Bouterige, Researcher, IHEDD-Ferdi

Viola Tarus, Policy Advisor Tax and Extractives, IISD

Jerry Ahadjie, Chief Minerals Officer, African Natural Resources Management and Investment Centre, African Development Bank

*Moderated by:Robin Hodess, Strategy Lead, The B Team

15:30 – 16:30

Why beneficial ownership transparency is key for a just energy transition: Strengthening the governance of the transition minerals value chain

Meeting rooms 201/202
(combined)
🗨️ EN, FR

Transparency International Australia

This session brings together civil society and industry experts to discuss the role that beneficial ownership transparency can play in addressing and curbing corruption risks in the mineral value chain in view of increasing extraction of transition minerals.

15:30 – 16:30

Transparency at a crossroads: SOEs and commodity traders in an evolving energy landscape

Meeting room 205
🗨️ EN, FR

This session focuses on the use of data and transparency in the financing and trading activities of SOEs amid volatile commodity markets, the accelerating energy transition and efforts to strengthen domestic revenue mobilisation in resource-rich countries.

Hon. Bruno Jean Richard Itoua, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Republic of the Congo

Hon. Raphael Tonpi, Vice Minister for State Enterprises, Papua New Guinea

Ali Nazar Faeq Al-Shatari, Deputy Director General, State Oil Marketing Company (SOMO)

Akere Muna, Lawyer and Founder Transparency International Cameroon

Moderated by:

Valerie Marcel, Co-founder and Director, New Producers Group and Associate Fellow, Chatham House

WEDNESDAY 14 JUNE

Day 2: Future priorities, new frontiers

16:30 – 17:30

Transparency for a sustainable future

This session considers the future strategic direction for the EITI and implications for country-level implementation.

Main auditorium
 EN, FR, ES, RU

Hon. Awa Marie Coll-Seck, Minister of State, Chair EITI National Committee, Senegal

Richard Nephew, United States Coordinator on Global Anti-Corruption

Clancy Moore, Chief Executive Officer, Transparency International Australia

Richard Morgan, Head of Government Relations, Anglo American plc

Moderated by:

Rt Hon. Helen Clark, EITI Board Chair

17:45 – 19:15

57th EITI Board meeting

BY INVITATION

Oval Room
 EN, FR, ES, RU

The 2023 EITI Global Conference is kindly hosted by the Government of Senegal

We are also grateful for the financial support received from:

SPONSOR COUNTRIES

Canada

SUOMI
FINLAND

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra
 Swiss Confederation
Federal Department of Economic Affairs,
Education and Research EAER
State Secretariat for Economic Affairs SECO

UK EITI
Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative
United Kingdom

SPONSOR COMPANIES

BHP

ExxonMobil

GLENCORE

Newmont

RioTinto

