

Extractive Industries
Transparency Initiative

OPEN DATA BUILD TRUST

2019 Global Conference
Paris, France, 18-19 June

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

#EITI2019
#buildtrust

@EITlorg

VENUE

OECD Conference Centre.
2, rue André Pascal
75016 Paris

EITI CONFERENCE APP

To access the latest programme, speaker and delegate information as well as information on partner events, download the Attendify App via Google Play or the Apple Store and search for 'EITI' or type <https://attendify.com/app/jjc709/> into your web browser and request a link directly to your mobile. All changes to the programme will be notified via the App.

INTERPRETATION

All plenary sessions will be interpreted in French, English, Spanish and Russian. All executive sessions will be interpreted in French and English. Selected executive sessions will be interpreted in additional languages. See the EITI Conference App for additional information.

NATIONAL INNOVATION EXCHANGE

The National Innovation Exchange is an exposition of the EITI implementing countries. It provides an opportunity to learn and exchange knowledge about EITI implementation. In the pitch corner, country delegations and partners will share ten-minute presentations, followed by discussions on exciting new ideas, innovations and lessons learned. The schedule for the pitch will be included on the Conference App and will run on 18 and 19 June. The National Innovation Exchange will run during conference hours on Tuesday 18 June and Wednesday 19 June.

INTERNET

Wifi is available free of charge by connecting to HotspotOECD (no password), for the duration of the conference. A Charging Station is available close to the Copy Centre for charging mobile phones and tablets.

MEALS

A permanent tea and coffee station is available in the main conference area. Lunch will be served throughout the conference at the following times:

17 June: 12:00 – 13:00

18 June: 13:00 – 14:15

19 June: 13:00 – 14:15

The lunch venue is inside the Château de la Muette at the OECD Conference Centre.

RECEPTION

The Government of France and the EITI invite you to enjoy a reception at 18:00 on Tuesday 18 June. The event will take place in the Château de la Muette.

The 2019 EITI Global Conference provides a platform for representatives from 52 EITI implementing countries and beyond to discuss key issues around the management of the extractive sector and the impact of the EITI. The EITI is committed to reflecting diversity and inclusion in the Conference programme and ensuring that representation on all panels is balanced, reflecting gender, regional and language diversity.

MONDAY 17 JUNE

PRE-CONFERENCE DAY AND BOARD MEETING

KEY

Plenary Session

Executive Session

Partner Event

08:15– Committee meetings BY INVITATION
10:00

09:30– National Coordinators' meeting
12:15 BY INVITATION

Room CC4

Sharing best practices in EITI implementation and introducing the 2019 EITI Standard.

09:30– Civil Society Meeting BY INVITATION
12:30 Room CC12

12:00– Lunch
13:15

13:00– Extractives Data: Use, Impact,
15:00 Collaboration

Room CC12

Global Witness (GW), Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI) and Oxfam

13:15– 43rd Board meeting BY INVITATION
15:30 Room CC4

Last meeting of the 2016-2019 Board

13:00– Quantifying the economic,
15:00 environmental and social costs and benefits of extraction

Room CC9

Columbia Centre on Sustainable Investment (CCSI) and Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI)

15:30– Artisanal and small-scale mining and responsible sourcing’s contribution to sustainable development: panning for data
17:30
Room CC9
OECD

15:30– How open data can enhance state-owned enterprise performance and benchmarking
17:30
Room CC12
Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI) and the African Development Bank Group (AfDB)

16:00– Members’ Meeting BY INVITATION
17:30 Plenary room
Selection of the new Chair and the Board

18:00 EITI Reception BY INVITATION
Château de la Muette (OECD)
For pre-conference day participants

TUESDAY 18 JUNE

CONFERENCE DAY 1

All Day National Innovation Exchange

08:15– Cost auditing in the petroleum sector:
09:15 A missing item on the transparency agenda?
Room: CC7
Oxfam America

08:15– Beneficial ownership transparency
09:15 as a global norm
Room: CC4
Open Government Partnership (OGP) and EITI

09:30– Welcome to the EITI 2019
09:40 Global Conference

Plenary room
Fredrik Reinfeldt, Chair, EITI
Jean-Baptiste Lemoyne, Minister of State attached to the Minister for Europe and Foreign Affairs

09:40–
11:00 Opening Plenary: Open data, build trust – Extractives governance in a changing world

Plenary room

This opening high-level plenary will set the scene for the conference, highlighting global trends and future directions for the EITI and the wider extractives governance agenda. It will take stock of progress with transparency, accountability and anti-corruption efforts in the extractive industries. It will also highlight how the EITI can contribute to inclusive development and to the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

H.E. Faustin-Archange Touadéra, President of the Central African Republic

H.E. Mahamudu Bawumia, Vice President, Ghana

Angel Gurría, Secretary General, OECD

Simon Thompson, Chairman, Rio Tinto

Elisa Peter, Executive Director, Publish What You Pay (PWYP)

Moderated by Fredrik Reinfeldt, Chair, EITI

11:00–
11:30 Plenary session 2: From Lima to Paris – What has the EITI achieved?

Plenary room

In this session, the outgoing EITI Chair will present the EITI 2019 Chair Awards and the 2019 Progress Report. Members from each of the constituencies on the EITI Board will discuss what the EITI has achieved since stakeholders last met in Lima in 2016 and share the stories behind these achievements.

Olga Bielkova, Member of Parliament, Ukraine

Ana Carolina González Espinosa, Program Officer for Andean Region, Ford Foundation

Dominic Emery, Vice-President, Group Strategic Planning, BP

Moderated by Fredrik Reinfeldt, Chair, EITI

11:30– Coffee break
11:45

11:45– Plenary session 3: Disclosure by 13:00 default – Mainstreaming through open data

Plenary room

The 2019 EITI Standard encourages implementing countries to strengthen disclosure of data and information. It encourages government agencies to embrace open government and open data, so that citizens can access up-to-date information. Companies are also providing more detailed information in their annual reports and online. This session will explore the opportunities and challenges associated with mainstreaming EITI implementation.

Hon. Bambang Brodjonegoro, Minister of Planning, Indonesia

Hon. Jean-Marc Thystère-Tchicaya, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Republic of Congo

Hon. Nargis Nehan, Minister of Mines and Petroleum, Afghanistan

Richard Adkerson, CEO, Freeport McMoRan

Daniel Kaufmann, President and CEO, Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI)

Moderated by Mark Robinson, Executive Director, EITI

13:00– Lunch
14:15

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS: DAY 1

14:15–
15:45

1: From reports to disclosures –
Using the EITI to strengthen government systems

Room CC7

This session will showcase efforts by EITI countries to improve regular disclosures about their natural resources, with examples of how the EITI is being used to strengthen government systems. It will discuss how EITI reporting can shift its focus to analysing important trends, exploring opportunities to further improve disclosure practices and informing public debate.

Hon. Gabriel Dodo Ndoke, Minister of Mines, Industry and Technological Development, Cameroon

Hon. Lilya Shushanyan, Deputy Minister Territorial Administration and Development, Armenia

Olena Pavlenko, President, DiXi Group, Ukraine

Sam Bartlett, Technical Director, EITI

Richard Morgan, Head of Government Relations, Anglo American Plc

Moderated by Joe Powell, Deputy CEO, Open Government Partnership (OGP)

14:15–
15:45

2: What's in it for the extractive industries? How companies contribute to and benefit from transparency and accountable governance

Auditorium

This session will discuss the benefits of extractives transparency and multi-stakeholder dialogue from an industry perspective, highlight some of the industry practices that have helped contribute to improved resource governance in producing countries, and consider what comes next for industry leaders seeking to meet expectations from investors and civil society.

Hon. Carolina Rojas Hayes, Vice-Minister of Mines, Colombia

Hon. Abdul Mahdy al-Ameedi, Director General, Petroleum Contracts and Licensing Directorate, Iraq

Reg Manhas, Senior Vice President, External Affairs, Kosmos Energy

Robin Hodess, Director, Governance and Transparency, The B Team

Moderated by Simone Niven, Corporate Relations Group Executive, Rio Tinto

14:15–
15:45

3: Civil society at the forefront of sustainable governance of natural resources

Plenary room

This session will discuss the central role of civil society in promoting and advancing transparency and accountability in the extractive industries, using data and participating in decision-making. Speakers will share examples of how civil society engagement has contributed to better sector governance, and good practices of existing participation mechanisms from which the EITI can learn. Participants will discuss the challenges of shrinking civil society space.

Hon. Maksym Nemchynov, State Secretary of the Ministry of Energy and Coal, Ukraine

Cielo Magno, National Coordinator, Bantay Kita-PWYP, Philippines

Luke Balleny, Manager, International Council on Mining and Metals (ICMM)

Tonu Basu, Thematic Engagement Lead, Open Government Partnership (OGP)

Christian Mounzeo, President, Meeting for Peace and Human Rights, Republic of Congo

Moderated by Elisa Peter, Executive Director, Publish What You Pay (PWYP)

14:15–
15:45

4: Disclosures that matter for citizens – Social, environmental and local impacts of extractives

Room CC4

This session aims to address demands in EITI countries for information about the social and environmental impact of the extractive industries. It will look at how local governments and communities have used information and multi-stakeholder dialogue to better understand the benefits and challenges related to extractives projects that affect them and how potentially negative impacts can be mitigated.

Hon. Eduardo Guevara, Vice Minister of Hydrocarbons, Peru

Lydia Boarlaza, Chair of the Board, Madagascar Consolidated Mining, Madagascar

Delgermaa Boldbaatar, D2D Coordinator, Mongolia

Edda Müller, Germany EITI and Chair of Transparency International Germany

Juan Cruz Vieyra, Senior Specialist, Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

Moderated by Penny Davies, International Program Director, Ford Foundation

14:15–
15:45

5: A face to the name – How government and industry can use ownership data to strengthen anti-corruption efforts

Room CC9

This session will share good practice examples and illustrate the ways in which beneficial ownership disclosure can benefit governments and companies. It will explore mechanisms for data verification, synergies amongst growing disclosure requirements and coordinated responses to risks. Representatives from implementing countries leading on the beneficial ownership transparency agenda will also be sharing their ambitious plans to meet the 2020 deadline.

Hon. Mohammed Amin Adam, Deputy Minister of Energy, Ghana

Hon. Emil Osmonbetov, Chairperson of the State Committee on Industry, Energy and Subsoil Use, State Committee on Mining, Kyrgyz Republic

James Ensor, Executive Officer and President, BHP Foundation

Laury Haytayan, MENA Director, Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI)

Charlie Cox, Associate, Risk Advisory Group

Moderated by Nicole Bieske, Head of Programme, Mining for Sustainable Development, Transparency International Australia

15:45–
16:15

Coffee break

16:15–
17:45

Plenary session 4: The role of transparency in fighting corruption in the extractives sector

Plenary room

This session aims to discuss the role that the EITI plays in addressing corruption in the extractive sector, highlighting some of the significant corruption risks that the EITI is currently addressing, as well as the structural limitations. Representatives from governments, civil society and extractive companies will share their experiences with preventing corruption using transparency. Anti-corruption practitioners will share best practices on other existing corruption mitigation measures and explore how the EITI could learn from and contribute to these efforts.

Alexandre Vidigal de Oliveira, Secretary of Geology, Mining and Mining Transformation, Brazil

Hon. John Penrose, Minister and Anti-Corruption Champion, UK

Bolaji Owasanoye, Executive Chairman of Independent Corrupt Practices Commission, Nigeria

Paul McDade, CEO, Tullow Oil

Alexandra Gillies, Advisor, Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI)

Tur-Od Lkhagvajav, Co-Founder and Chairman of the Board, Transparency International, Mongolia

Moderated by Mathilde Mesnard, Deputy Director for Financial Affairs and Enterprise Affairs, OECD

18:00 Reception hosted by the Government of France

Château de la Muette (OECD)

All Day The National Innovation Exchange

08:15–
09:15 Francophone Ministers and Parliamentarians roundtable on extractives transparency

BY INVITATION

Room CC4

Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie

08:15–
09:15 Leveraging information technology in EITI mainstreaming

Plenary room

EITI International Secretariat in collaboration with partners

08:15–
09:15 How to cooperate and collaborate better in the Latin American and Caribbean region?

BY INVITATION

Room CC7

GIZ, IADB and Ministry of Mines and Energy,
Colombia

08:15–
09:15 How can transparency ensure fair
and sustainable debt

Room CC9

United States Government

Plenary Session

Executive Session

Partner Event

09:30–
11:00 Plenary session 5: What is the big deal with extractives data and how can transparency stimulate domestic resource mobilisation?

Plenary room

This session will showcase how the EITI requirements on granular, timely and open data on contracts, ownership and payments allow all stakeholders increasingly to follow the money on individual deals. This ‘transparency triangle’ provides a basis for civil society to hold governments and companies accountable. The session will include examples of how extractives transparency can help government raise the revenues that are owed to them and to create a predictable, stable, level playing field for companies.

Hon. Zainab Ahmed, Immediate past Minister of Finance, Nigeria

Jon Lomøy, Director General, Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (NORAD)

Jessica Uhl, Chief Financial Officer, Shell

Filomeno S. Sta. Ana, Executive Director, Action for Economic Reforms, Philippines

Moderated by Rt Hon. Helen Clark, EITI Chair Nominee

09:30–
11:15 Extractives and the low-carbon transition: Can transparency help?
Room CC4

Chatham House, IDDRI and OECD

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS: DAY 2

11:30–
13:00 6: Open contracts 2021 –
Ensuring a good deal

Plenary room

The session provides a platform for governments, companies and civil society to discuss the importance of contract transparency. It will discuss the benefits for governments and industry and explore strategies to undertake transparency reforms to meet the requirements of the 2019 EITI Standard.

Hon. Doto Biteko, Minister of Mines, Tanzania

Hon. Raphael Gregory Conwright Trotman,
Minister of Natural Resources, Guyana

Stephen Douglas, Senior Advisor to the President, Total

Amadou Bah, Executive Director, Action Mines,
Guinea

Pamela Grafilo, National Coordinator, Publish
What You Pay Philippines

Moderated by Isabel Munilla, Policy Lead for Extractive Industries Transparency, Oxfam America

11:30–
13:00 7: Taxing extractives – How to make the data work for you

Room CC7

The session will discuss how transparency can support the design of fair and predictable fiscal frameworks for extractives, bringing together taxation and financial modelling experts to explore how data modelling can inform effective and equitable tax policies.

Don Hubert, Founder and President, Resources
for Development (R4D)

Alexandra Readhead, Technical Advisor,
Intergovernmental Forum on Mining, Minerals,
Metals and Sustainable Development (IGF)

Talent Ng'andwe, Deputy CEO, Chamber of Mines, Zambia

Waziri Adio, Executive Secretary, Nigeria EITI

Simon Taylor, Director and Co-founder, Global Witness

Moderated by Chiara Bronchi, Deputy Director
General, Asian Development Bank (ADB)

11:30 –
13:00

8: The business case for state-owned enterprise and commodity trading transparency

Room CC4

This session will explore the business case for state-owned enterprise transparency. Considering the perspective of both state-owned enterprises and their government shareholders, it will discuss the achievements of targeted efforts on transparency in the sale of oil, gas and minerals and consider the next steps for the EITI's support for systematic transparency of state-owned enterprises.

Miguel Gutiérrez, Chairman, Argentine Energy Company (YPF Argentina)

Anis Yusal Yusoff, Deputy Director General, National Centre for Governance, Integrity and Anti-Corruption, Prime Minister's Department, Malaysia

Linda Tamakloe, Investor Relations, Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC)

Shaun Teichner, General Council, Glencore

Fatima Mimbire, Researcher, Centro de Integridade Pública (CIP), Mozambique

Moderated by Joseph Williams, Advocacy Manager, Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI)

11:30–
13:00

9: Pressing for progress on gender equality and diversity in natural resource governance

Room CC9

This session will highlight the importance of reflecting gender and inclusion in EITI implementation and discuss the opportunities offered by changes to the EITI Standard to address gender and diversity in implementing countries.

Olga Bielkova, Member of Parliament, Ukraine

Yvonne Mbala, Deputy CEO, PERENCO,
Democratic Republic of Congo

Faith Nwadishi, Executive Director of Koyenum
Immallah Foundation, Nigeria

Mark Pearson, Director General, Planning,
Delivery and Results Branch, Natural Resources
Canada

Maritza Esther Ruiz Escoto, Civil Society
Organisation Multi-stakeholder Group member,
Dominican Republic

Moderated by Rt Hon. Helen Clark, EITI Chair
Nominee

11:30–
13:00

10: How does the EITI achieve impact?

Auditorium

The purpose of this session is to bring together researchers and practitioners to explore how to assess the impact of EITI on natural resource governance and development outcomes.

Mario Picon, Program Director, Results for Development

Oleksiy Orlovsky, Democratic Practice Program
Director, International Renaissance Foundation,
Ukraine

Ian Mwiinga, Communications officer, Zambia EITI

Leila Kazemi, Project Lead, Columbia Center for Sustainable Investment (CCSI)

Moderated by Michael Jarvis, Executive Director, Transparency and Accountability
Initiative

13:00– Lunch
14:15

14:15–
16:15

Plenary session 6: Showcasing leadership on the transparency agenda: EITI stakeholders forum

Plenary room

Leaders and stakeholders attending the conference are invited to use this session to make statements and commitments on extractives governance. Each presentation will be limited to two minutes for each speaker. Longer statements can be lodged with the EITI International Secretariat and will be published in the Book of Commitments on the EITI website.

H.E. Clément Mouamba, Prime Minister, Republic of Congo

Patrick Jean Pouyanné, Chairman and CEO of Total

Hon. Louis-Paul Motazé, Minister of Finance, Cameroon

Hon. Foday Rado Yokie, Minister of Mines and Mineral Resources, Sierra Leone

Hon. Mouhamadou Makhtar Cissé, Minister of Petroleum and Energy, Senegal

Hon. U Ohn Win, Minister of Natural Resources and Environmental Conservation, Myanmar

Tom Butler, CEO International Council on Mining and Metals (video message)

Hon. Richard Musukwa, Minister of Mines and Minerals Development, Zambia

Hon. Alberto Reyes, Vice Minister of Hydrocarbons, Ministry of Energy, Dominican Republic

Hon. Fidiniavo Ravokatra, Minister of Mines and Strategic Resources, Madagascar

Hon. Gabriel Mbagha Obiang Lima, Minister of Mines, Industry and Energy, Equatorial Guinea

Winnie Byanyima, Oxfam International Executive Director (video message)

Hon. Slim Feriani, Minister of Industry and Small and Medium-sized Enterprises, Tunisia

Hon. Oumarou Idani, Minister of Mines, Burkina Faso

Hon. Lelenta Hawa Baba Bah, Minister of Mines, Mali

Hon. Raphael Gregory Conwright Trotman, Minister of Natural Resources, Guyana

Plenary session 6 CONTINUED

Hon. Abdoulaye Magassouba, Minister of Mines, Guinea

Hon. Jean Claude Kouassi, Ministry of Mines and Geology, Côte d'Ivoire

Hon. Foumakoye Gado, Minister of Petroleum, Niger

Hon. Mehrinamoh Jonmamadova, Deputy Minister of Finance, Tajikistan

Hon. Fernando Benalcazar, Vice-Minister of Mines, Ecuador

Hon. Ilir Bejtja, Deputy Minister of Infrastructure and Energy, Albania

Hon. Carolina Sánchez, Secretary of Mining, Argentina

Ivan Glasenberg, CEO Glencore (video message)

Hon. Guylain Nyembo Mbwizya, Deputy Chief of Staff, Democratic Republic of Congo

Hon. Nandinjargal Ganbold, State Secretary of the Ministry of Mines and Heavy Industry, Mongolia

Hon. Janet Abuel, Acting Secretary, Department of Budget and Management, Philippines

Winfried Horstmann, Director-General Industry Policy, Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs, Germany

Onesimo Mazai Moyo, Permanent Secretary, Ministry for Mines and Mining Development, Zimbabwe

Cecilia Valdés Vial, Chief of Staff, Ministry of Mines, Chile

Walid Nasr, Acting Chair of the Board, Lebanese Petroleum Administration

Nicolas Maes, CEO, Orano Mining

Matthew Chamberlain, CEO, London Metal Exchange

Jean Claude Katende, Chair, African Association for Human Rights, (ASADHO), Democratic Republic of Congo

Frode Neergaard, Chief Advisor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Denmark

Toshihiko Horiuchi, Minister, the Embassy of Japan in France

Moderated by Mark Robinson, Executive Director, EITI

14:15–
16:15 Environmental reporting – An emerging practice responding to local and global demands in the extractive sector

Room CC7

German Development Cooperation and Derecho Ambiente y Recursos Naturales (DAR)

16:15–
16:45 Closing plenary: Harnessing natural resources for inclusive development

Plenary room

The session will focus on how opening data and building trust can ensure that EITI countries harness their natural resources for inclusive development and will conclude by highlighting opportunities and priorities for the EITI going forward.

Remarks by:

Rt Hon. Helen Clark, EITI Chair Nominee

H.E. Odile Renaud-Basso, Director General,
Department of Treasury

Hon. Samuel Urkato, Minister of Minerals and Petroleum, Ethiopia

17:30–
18:15 44th Board meeting BY INVITATION

Room CC4

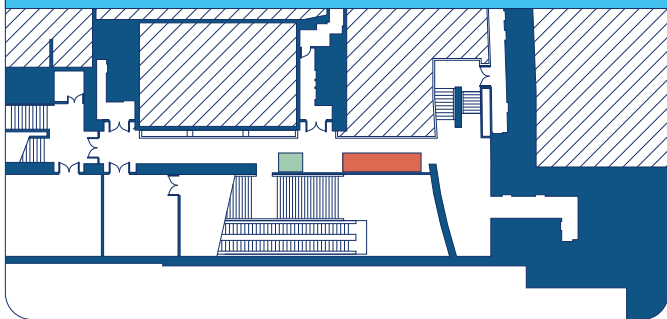

First meeting of the 2019-2021 Board

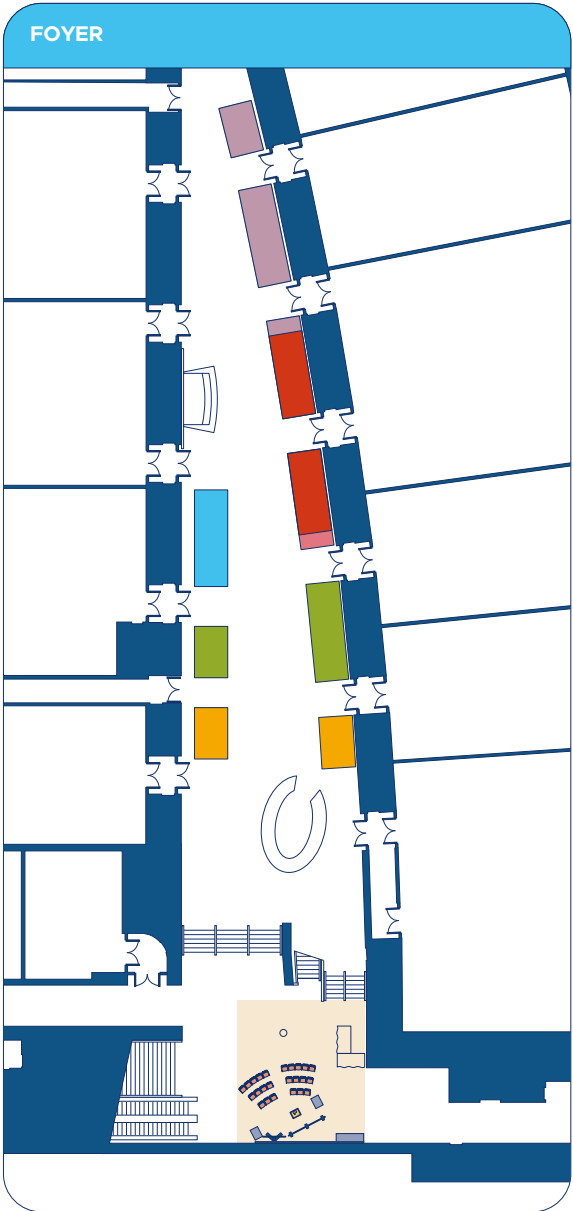

FLOOR PLAN NATIONAL INNOVATION EXCHANGE

GALLERY

MEZZANINE

KEY TO THE NATIONAL INNOVATION EXCHANGE

GALLERY

Anglophone West Africa

Ghana
Nigeria
Sao Tome and Principe
Sierra Leone

Latin America and the Caribbean

Argentina
Colombia
Dominican Republic
Guatemala
Guyana
Honduras
Peru
Suriname
Trinidad and Tobago

EITI Secretariat

Welcome desk
Graphic designer

Photo and infographic exhibition

MEZZANINE

Central Asia and Middle East

Afghanistan
Iraq

Anglophone East Africa

Ethiopia
Malawi
Mozambique
Seychelles
Tanzania
Zambia

FOYER

Pitch corner

Central Asia

Armenia
Kazakhstan
Kyrgyz Republic
Tajikistan

South-East Asia

Indonesia
Mongolia
Myanmar
Papua New Guinea
Philippines
Timor-Leste

Europe

Albania
Germany
Ukraine
United Kingdom

EITI Secretariat

Help desk

Francophone Central Africa

Cameroon
Central African Republic
Chad
Democratic Republic of Congo
Madagascar
Republic of the Congo

Francophone West Africa

Burkina Faso
Côte d'Ivoire
Guinea
Mali
Mauritania
Senegal
Togo

WE ARE GRATEFUL TO THE
GOVERNMENT OF FRANCE FOR
HOSTING THE CONFERENCE

WE ARE ALSO GRATEFUL FOR THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT RECEIVED FROM:

GLENCORE

ExxonMobil

RioTinto

www.eiti.org